

Sample Medical Chronology

Case: Sample Medical Record

Created on: April 17, 2025 at 10:59 PM

| Date       | Provider          | Event Details                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | References                                           |
|------------|-------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| 01/15/2025 | Dr. Sarah Johnson | Visit Type: Primary CareSummary: Routine physical examination with normal vital signsTreatment: Physical examination, BP: 118/78, HR: 72, Temp: 98.6°F, Weight: 145 lbs. Scheduled mammogram. Renewed Zyrtec prescription. | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdfPage references: Pg. 1 |
| 12/03/2024 |                   | Visit Type: Primary CareSummary: Urgent care visit for acute bronchitisTreatment: Prescribed Azithromycin 250mgDiagnosis: Acute bronchitis                                                                  | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdfPage references: Pg. 1 |

|            |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                 |
|------------|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| 09/18/2024 |  | Visit Type: Primary Care Summary: Annual Womens Health Exam with normal pap smear results. Discussed family planning options and scheduled mammogram. Treatment: Pap smear, womens health exam                                                      | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdf Page references: Pg. 2 |
| 06/05/2024 |  | Visit Type: Rheumatology Summary: Allergist consultation with skin testing performed Treatment: Skin testing, prescribed Zyrtec 10mg daily, recommended air purifier Diagnosis: Positive reactions to dust mites, ragweed, oak pollen | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdf Page references: Pg. 2 |
| 03/22/2024 |  | Visit Type: Emergency Medicine Summary: Emergency room visit for severe migraine Symptoms: Severe migraine Treatment: CT scan, IV fluids, Toradol administration, prescribed Sumatriptan                                              | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdf Page references: Pg. 2 |

|            |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                 |
|------------|--|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| 11/12/2023 |  | Visit Type: Orthopedic Surgery Summary: Orthopedic consultation for right knee pain Symptoms: Right knee pain Treatment: X-ray, knee evaluation Diagnosis: Mild osteoarthritis | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdf Page references: Pg. 2 |
| 10/15/2023 |  | Visit Type: Primary Care Summary: Flu vaccine administration Treatment: Flu vaccination                                                                                                                    | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdf Page references: Pg. 3 |

|            |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                 |
|------------|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08/30/2023 |  | Visit Type: Primary Care Summary: Annual physical exam with bloodwork. Vital signs and most labs normal except elevated LDL and low Vitamin D.; Lab results showing normal blood counts, cholesterol panel, and glucose levels Treatment: Physical exam, bloodwork including CBC, metabolic panel, lipid panel, and vitamin D testing. BP: 120/80, HR: 68, Temp: 98.4°F, Weight: 142 lbs; Complete blood count, metabolic panel, lipid panel Diagnosis: Slightly elevated LDL (138 mg/dL), Low Vitamin D (22 ng/mL) | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdf Page references: Pg. 3 |
|------------|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|

|            |                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                  |
|------------|-----------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 07/13/2023 | Los Angeles, California; local hospital | Visit Type: Emergency Medicine Summary: Patient experienced severe lower back pain after a collision and was immobilized on a backboard by paramedics; Two-vehicle collision at intersection of Oak Street and 3rd Avenue. Patient transported to hospital after collision. Symptoms: Severe lower back pain, localized primarily in the lumbar region, significant discomfort upon movement; Severe lower back pain, predominantly in lumbar area, significant discomfort when attempting to move Treatment: First aid given by bystander, immobilization on backboard by paramedics; Immobilized on backboard and transported to hospital. MRI or CT scan to be conducted. | CA_Accident_Report copy.pdf Page references: Pg. 1 |
| 03/15/2023 |                                         | Visit Type: Primary Care Summary: Tdap vaccination Treatment: Tdap vaccine administration                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdf Page references: Pg. 3  |

|            |  |                                                                                                                                                  |                                                      |
|------------|--|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| 02/12/2023 |  | Visit Type: Primary CareSummary: COVID-19 vaccine primary series second doseTreatment: COVID-19 vaccination | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdfPage references: Pg. 3 |
| 01/15/2023 |  | Visit Type: Primary CareSummary: COVID-19 vaccine primary series first doseTreatment: COVID-19 vaccination  | SAMPLE MEDICAL RECORDS.pdfPage references: Pg. 3 |